Virtual Event Producer with First Event

Our Digital team is growing, along with several new client wins, we are recruiting for a Virtual Event Producer to join our First Event family!

First Event is a UK leading Event Company that helps teams create incredible events around the globe. This is a great chance with lots of opportunity to help provide further development to a company, which has shown excellent rates of growth over the past few years. In response to the global pandemic, First Event has expanded its offering in innovative online event solutions, including the development of a new Digital Events department, to deal with demand.

As a Virtual Event Producer, you will support the digital account team building and delivering virtual events. This will be a fast-paced role which will often require you to work independently - however, you will be part of our growing technical department comprising talented individuals with diverse expertise and experience.

Main duties and responsibilities

- Support the Digital account team in building and delivering virtual events
- Provide exceptional pre-event support including delegate and agenda management, collect content, run pre-record sessions and work with editors to get the final product
- Work to build up agendas, secure speakers and curate the wider event
- Liaise with our Design and Web teams to ensure both our and the clients systems are kept up to date including updating event platforms
- Support the Technical Producer with on-site set-up and robust testing as well as supporting with the delivery of the virtual event and livestreams
- Question and challenge agendas to ensure the client is getting the most out of the event and to try increase their ROI
- Working on the project plan to ensure plans are kept on track ahead of and during the event
- Support the Digital team at live event venues to deliver hybrid events
